The screenshot displays the DELNET website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: User Manual / Usage Statistics / Know your ILL-Book Status / Your Account / Contact DELNET / Log Out. Below this, the DELNET logo is visible on the left, and a message states: "Your membership will be active for 133 days, needs renewal thereafter." To the right of this message is a language dropdown menu set to "English" and a field showing the institution: "Institution : P. D. E. A. College of Engineering". A large banner for "HAPPY NEW YEAR 2021" features a background of fireworks and images of a smartphone, a desktop monitor displaying a library catalog, and a stack of books. Below the banner is a search section titled "Search the DELNET Digital Library Resources" with a search input field, a dropdown for "All Fields", a dropdown for "---Select Format---", a "Find" button, and a link to "Advanced". Below the search section, it says "You are accessing union catalog of Books, Journals etc". Further down, the text "Full-text Digital Library Resources" is centered. At the bottom, there are two main portals: the "Knowledge Gainer Portal" with a link to "Access Full Text E-books, E-journals, E-articles, etc." and the "Language Learning Portal" with links for "English" and "Foreign Languages". The bottom of the image shows a Windows taskbar with various application icons and a system clock indicating 14:27 on 10-12-2021.

DOAJ:	DOAJ is an online directory that indexes and provides access to high quality, open access, peer-reviewed journals. DOAJ is a community-curated list of reputable open access journals and aims to be the starting point for all information searches for quality, peer reviewed open access material.	DOAJ
OALib:	OALib is an Open Access Library. OALib is currently hosting links and metadata to more than 4,214,709 open access articles covering a wide range of academic disciplines. All full text articles from your search results are free to download.	OALib
Directory of Open Access Books:	The primary aim of DOAB is to increase discoverability of Open Access books. Academic publishers are invited to provide metadata of their Open Access books to DOAB. The directory is open to all publishers who publish academic, peer reviewed books in Open Access and should contain as many books as possible, provided that these publications are in Open Access and meet academic standards.	Directory of Open Access Books
Internet Archive:	The Internet Archive (archive.org) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit that was founded to build an Internet library, with the purpose of offering permanent access for researchers, historians, and scholars to historical collections that exist in digital format. Founded in 1996, the Internet Archive has an historical web collection (the Wayback Machine) of over 150 billion web pages, about 240,000 movies, over 500,000 audio items (including over 70,000 live concerts), over 1,800,000 texts, 1600 education items, and over 30,000 software items. And we are growing bigger every day!	Internet Archive
Free EBooks:	Discover all-new, rising authors. Independent writers offer both entertaining fiction/romance for your enjoyment and non-fiction to help you find info from self-help to biz growth.	Free EBooks:
MIT open course ware:	MIT Open CourseWare (OCW) is a web-based publication of virtually all MIT course content. OCW is open and available to the world and is a permanent MIT activity. Through OCW, educators improve courses and curricula, making their schools more effective; students find additional resources to help them succeed; and independent learners enrich their lives and use the content to tackle some of our world's most difficult challenges, including sustainable development, climate change, and cancer eradication.	MIT open course ware
ERIC:	ERIC indexes a wide variety journal sources. The coverage of an approved journal source is determined by an examination of three to five current issues during the source review process. A journal may be switched between being comprehensively, selectively, or occasionally indexed at any time.	ERIC
